DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment is made of the receipt of the preliminary amendment received on 3/1/02. Claims 1-14 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dymetman et al. (US 6,330,976) (hereinafter referred to as 'Dymetman').

Dymetman teaches a method in which a user may manipulate a detection device to

The document 2 bears encoded markings that encode a document identification code and a page location code identifying a position of the markings relative to the page (col. 8, lines 45-68 and col. 12, lines 47-68).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
